[PROPOSED] ORDER GRANTING FINAL
APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION
SETTLEMENT AND FINAL JUDGMENT

IMAGED FILE

Date: October 23, 2026

Time: 10:15 a.m.

Dept.: C-66

1 The Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement (“Motion”) came before this Court on
2 _____ [date]. The Court had preliminarily approved the Settlement Agreement¹ on 3 May 19, 2026. ROA 27. This Court has reviewed: (a) the Motion and the supporting papers, including,
4 the Settlement Agreement; (b) any timely objections filed with, or presented to, the Court²; and (c)
5 arguments of counsel. Based on this review and the findings below, the Court finds good cause to grant
6 and hereby GRANTS the Motion and enters FINAL JUDGMENT.

7 1. Settlement Agreement. The Settlement Agreement, including exhibits, and the 8 definitions of the words and terms contained therein, are incorporated by reference in this Order and 9 Judgment.

10 2. The Court hereby finds the Settlement Agreement is in all respects fair, adequate, and 11 reasonable, and therefore approves it.

12 3. The Court finds that extensive arms-length negotiations have taken place, in good faith,
13 between Class Counsel and Defendant’s Counsel, resulting in the Settlement Agreement.

14 4. The Settlement provides substantial value to the Settlement Class in the form of the Credit
15 Benefits and Cash Benefits.

16 5. The Settlement Administrator and the Parties effectuated the Class Notice plan and 17 provided notice to Settlement Class Members in compliance with the Settlement Agreement, due process,
18 and California Rules of Court, rules 3.766 and 3.769(f). The notices: (i) fully and accurately informed
19 Settlement Class Members about the Action and Settlement; (ii) provided sufficient information for 20 Settlement Class Members to decide whether to accept the benefits offered, opt-out and pursue their own
21 remedies, or object to the Settlement; (iii) provided procedures for Settlement Class Members to submit
22 written objections to the proposed Settlement, to appear at the Final Approval Hearing, and to state
23 objections to the proposed Settlement; and (iv) provided the time, date, and place of the Final Approval
24 Hearing.

26 _____
27 ¹ Capitalized terms in this Order, unless otherwise defined, have the same definitions as in the 28 Settlement Agreement (“Agreement” or “SA”) attached as Exhibit 1 to the Declaration of Alexander E.
Wolf in support of Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Settlement, filed at ROA 19 Ex. 1.

² No Settlement Class Members objected to the Settlement.

1 6. The Parties performed their obligations to date under the Settlement Agreement.

2 7. For the reasons stated in the Preliminary Approval Order, and having found nothing that
3 would disturb these previous findings and no objections to the Settlement, this Court finds and determines
4 that the proposed Settlement Class, as defined below, meets all of the legal requirements for class
5 certification, for settlement purposes only, under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382.

6 8. Certification of Settlement Class. The Settlement Class is certified as “All persons
7 nationwide who purchased one or more items from www.AlbanyPark.com during the Class Period.” The 8 “Class Period” is June 21, 2020 through October 31, 2024. ROA 27 (Preliminary Approval Order); SA §§
9 I.FF, I.J. Excluded from the Settlement Class are all persons who validly opted out of the Settlement in a
10 timely manner³; counsel of record (and their respective law firms) for the Parties; Defendant and any of 11 its parents, affiliates, subsidiaries, independent service providers and all of their respective officers and 12 directors; and the presiding judge in the Action or judicial officer presiding over the matter, and all of 13 their immediate families and judicial staff. In connection with this final certification, the Court makes the 14 following findings for settlement purposes:

15 a. The Settlement Class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable.

16 b. There are questions of law or fact common to the Settlement Class for purposes of 17 settlement.

18 c. Plaintiff’s claims are typical of the claims being resolved through the Settlement.

19 d. Plaintiff is capable of fairly and adequately protecting the interests of the 20 Settlement Class in connection with the Settlement.

21 e. Common questions of law and fact predominate over questions affecting only 22 individual persons in the Settlement Class for settlement purposes.

23 f. Certification of the Settlement Class is superior to other available methods for the 24 fair and efficient resolution of the claims of the Settlement Class.

25
26
27
28 ³ No Settlement Class Members opted out of the Settlement.

1 g. Certification of the Settlement Class meets all applicable requirements of law,
2 including California Code of Civil Procedure § 382, California Rules of Court, rules 3.766 and 3.769, and
3 the California and U.S. Constitutions.

4 9. The Settlement Administrator determined that zero (0) persons opted out of the Settlement
5 to be excluded from the Settlement Class. As such, all Settlement Class Members shall be bound by this 6 Order. Further, no Settlement Class Members have submitted objections to the Settlement.

7 10. The Court now gives final approval to the Settlement, and finds that the Settlement is fair,
8 reasonable, adequate, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class. The settlement consideration
9 provided under the Settlement Agreement constitutes fair value given in exchange for the releases. The 10 Court finds that the consideration to be paid to Settlement Class Members is reasonable, and in the best
11 interests of the Settlement Class Members, considering the (i) disputed factual and legal circumstances of 12 the Action, (ii) defenses asserted in the Action, and (iii) potential risks and likelihood of success of 13 pursuing litigation on the merits. The complex legal and factual nature of this case based on alleged false
14 discounting practices, the amount of information exchanged, and the fact that the Settlement is the result
15 of arm's-length negotiations between the Parties all support this finding. Indeed, contested litigation
16 would have presented substantial risk for the Settlement Class. Defendant vigorously contests all aspects
17 of liability and damages in this Action, presenting substantial risk. Moreover, the Settlement is reasonable
18 in comparison to other court-approved settlements in false discounting cases as detailed in the Motion.
19 The Court also finds that these facts demonstrate that there was no collusion present in the reaching of 20 the Settlement, implicit or otherwise.

21 11. The Parties are hereby directed to further implement the Settlement Agreement according 22 to its terms and provisions, but may agree to reasonable extensions of time to carry out any provisions of 23 the Settlement Agreement without further order from the Court. The Settlement Agreement is hereby 24 incorporated into this Final Approval Order and Final Judgment in full and shall have the full force of an 25 Order of this Court.

26 12. Class Counsel and Class Representative. The Court reaffirms its preliminary 27 appointment of Alexander E. Wolf and William J. Edelman of Milberg, PLLC as Class Counsel for the 28

1 Settlement Class. The Court also reaffirms its preliminary appointment of Christina Chiechi as the Class
2 Representative for the Settlement Class.

3 13. Class Relief. Pursuant to the schedule and terms in the Settlement Agreement, Defendant
4 shall activate the Credit Benefits for all Settlement Class Members who did not submit a claim for a Cash
5 Benefit and the Settlement Administrator, CPT Group, Inc., shall distribute the Cash Benefits to all
6 Settlement Class Members who submitted a timely and valid claim.

7 14. Releases:

8 a. “Released Claims” means and includes any and all claims, demands, rights,
9 damages, obligations, suits, debts, liens, and causes of action under common law, statutory law, or any
10 other law or regulation (including federal, state, or local) of every nature and description whatsoever,
11 including monetary, injunctive, or equitable claims, and whether ascertained or unascertained, suspected
12 or unsuspected, existing or claimed to exist, held by the Releasing Parties that were asserted or reasonably
13 could have been asserted against the Released Parties in the Action, or that arise out of or are reasonably 14 related to the acts, omissions, facts, matters, transactions, or occurrences which were alleged or referred 15 to in the Action, or that otherwise arise out of or are reasonably related to Defendant’s reference, sale or 16 market prices, discounting or sale practices, or representations, advertising or marketing thereof, on 17 www.AlbanyPark.com, during the Class Period, including but not limited to alleged violations of 18 California’s Unfair Competition Law or False Advertising Law or similar federal or state laws or 19 regulations, alleged claims for unjust enrichment, and any claims for monetary, injunctive, or equitable 20 relief. SA § I.Z.

21 b. Upon the Effective Date, and in consideration of this Settlement including the 22 activation of Credit Benefits, payment of Cash Benefits, and other consideration, the sufficiency of which
23 is hereby acknowledged, and the mutual promises contained in this Settlement Agreement, the Releasing
24 Parties shall be deemed to have, and by operation of the Final Approval Order and Final Approval shall 25 have, fully, finally, and forever released, relinquished, and discharged all Released Claims against the 26 Released Parties. In connection with the Released Claims, each Releasing Party shall be deemed as of the 27 Effective Date to have expressly, knowingly, and voluntarily waived any and all provisions, rights and benefits conferred by Section 1542 of the California Civil Code, and any other statute, rule, and legal doctrine similar, comparable, or equivalent to Section 1542. SA § III.D.
28

c. The terms of the releases in the Settlement Agreement are specifically incorporated herein by this reference.

15. Each and every Settlement Class Member, and any person actually or purportedly acting on behalf of any Settlement Class Member(s), is hereby permanently barred and enjoined from commencing, instituting, continuing, pursuing, maintaining, prosecuting or enforcing any Released Claims (including, without limitation, in any individual, class or putative class, representative or other action or proceeding), directly or indirectly, in any judicial, administrative, arbitral, or other forum, against the Released Parties. This permanent bar and injunction is necessary to protect and effectuate the Agreement, this Final Approval Order, and this Court's authority to effectuate the Settlement Agreement, and is ordered in aid of this Court's jurisdiction and to protect its judgments.

16. The Settlement Agreement (including, without limitation, its exhibits), and any and all negotiations, documents and discussions associated with it, shall not be deemed or construed to be an admission or evidence of any violation of any statute, law, rule, regulation or principle of common law or equity, of any liability or wrongdoing, by Defendant, or of the truth of any of the claims asserted by Plaintiff in the Action, and evidence relating to the Agreement shall not be used, directly or indirectly, in any way, whether in the Action or in any other action or proceeding, except for purposes of enforcing the terms and conditions of the Agreement, the Preliminary Approval Order and/or this Order and Judgment.

17. Attorneys' Fees and Costs. An award of $1,500,000 in combined attorneys' fees and reasonable litigation expenses and costs to Class Counsel is fair and reasonable in light of the nature of this Action, Class Counsel's experience and efforts in prosecution the Action, and the benefits obtained for the Settlement Class. See Plaintiff's Motion for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Award (ROA 28–32). This fee award shall be paid by Defendant pursuant to the schedule in the Settlement Agreement.

18. Service Award. A service award to the Class Representative in the amount of $5,000 is fair and reasonable in light of (1) the Class Representative's risks in commencing this Action (including professional, emotional, and financial); the time and effort spent by the Class Representative in litigating this Action; and (c) the Class Representative's public interest service. See Plaintiff's Motion for

1 Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Award (ROA 28–32). The service award shall be paid by Defendant
2 pursuant to the schedule in the Settlement Agreement.

3 19. Court's Jurisdiction. Pursuant to Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 3.769(h), the Court retains 4 jurisdiction over this Action, the Parties, and all matters arising out of the Settlement Agreement and Final
5 Judgment.

7 NOW, THEREFORE, the Court, finding no reason exists for delay, hereby directs the Clerk to 8 enter this Final Judgment forthwith.
